

Item 8 (Item 5 of original issue)

NBF/T233
(R)

From: MOSCOW

To: CANBERRA

(Item 1)

No.: 111

21 May 1946

13 May 46

Your no. 31[1]. "ROK's" behaviour is causing anxiety, therefore pay the maximum attention to the question of ensuring his safe departure. Work to this end cautiously, so as not to arouse "ROK's" suspicions. [C% Make an arrangement] with the boss [KhOZYaIN] so as to give the impression in connection with the American Consul's letters. Let the boss, at an opportune moment, inform "ROK" in confidence that he sent to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs [MID] his own views on the advisability of engaging him for work in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs [MID] as a recruit who has shown [himself] suitable [a], leading up to this, that [it is][b] in ROK's interest [4 groups unrecovered] to study and to settle this question. Telegraph about "ROK's" departure and his itinerary.

[26 groups unrecoverable]

No. 3229

21 May 1946

BRIDE
~~TOP SECRET~~

VICTOR

S/NBF/T233

[T.N. and Comments next page]

BRIDE

~~TOP SECRET~~

S/NBF/T233

~~EIDER~~

T.N.: [a] The Russian text is POLOZhITEL'N[O?]
PROYaVIVShEGO NOVOBRANTsA. It would seem that the code clerk has omitted the reflexive necessary to complete the sense and to supply an object to the verb.

[b] Inserted by translator.

Comment: [i] Probably the message reported as Item 7
of this report.

S/NBF/T233

BRIDE